

With EAZEO
you can check
every move

In busy retail environments, things aren't always what they seem. In busy retail environments, things aren't always what they seem. That's why you often need to review and verify what you or your staff has seen. The Eazeo digital observation system from Bosch Security Systems lets you do that with confidence, allowing you to: Access any part of a recording virtually instantly. See exactly what happened and when. Capture a week's activity or more without interruption. Check every move in your premises at all times, using up to 8 cameras.
